

CASUAL LIVING

PRESS RELEASE 2023

Nature is one of the most beautiful sources of inspiration. It offers unforgettable impressions. The new collection CASUAL LIVING, a key topic of the spring collection from JAB ANSTOETZ Fabrics, is inspired by nature. Subtle dry looks, floral designs and soft natural materials take centre stage.

The colour scheme and design focus on summery lightness and combinability. The spectrum ranges from highly decorative to simple. The different techniques are a feast for the eyes: embroideries, a generous Jacobean pattern and hand-weave looks. The beautiful material aesthetics of the plains are typical of the country-house style. Natural materials such as linen and cotton are mixed with polyester. This makes the fabrics versatile and hard-wearing. Their light and fresh colours brighten the interior.

CASUAL LIVING reflects an attitude to life: the collection provides relaxation and soothing cosiness. In elegant settings, beautiful transparencies meet tactile surfaces. Whether interpreted in a Nordic or Mediterranean style, in the mountains or in the city - the collection exudes the charm of cosy, textile-inspired interior design. Combined with organically shaped furniture, it creates an inviting atmosphere. CASUAL LIVING stands for a new form of elegant nonchalance that leaves plenty of scope for personal interpretations.

JACOBINA pleases with its lush fantasy blossoms and fruits, which are drawn in fine detail. The Jacobean pattern combines tradition and modernity. Woven on a soft cotton quality, the floral design winds across the fabric like a meander. In contrast to the complex design, the colour scheme is simple: available in six colours on a neutral ground.

Yarn variety is the motto of LUCINO. The hand-weave look is created by different yarns in the weft, resulting in a horizontal mélangé. The soft quality is enhanced by subtle matt-gloss effects - available in 13 colours in standard width.

“When we developed CASUAL LIVING, we placed great emphasis on natural looks and textures. The collection lives from the different manufacturing techniques and the rich colour palettes.”, Tatjana Heidhölter, Design & Development JAB ANSTOETZ Fabrics.

The semi-transparent fabric NATURIA woven in double width combines a natural look with the positive properties of modern synthetic fibres. In 25 colours, yarn-dyed, an iridescent effect is created on the surface. The colour palette ranges from pastel to crayon colours.

STITCH imitates the look of embroidered horizontal tapes. The article with a soft feel and a beautiful woollen look is made in Germany. The five subtle colourways are adorned with a subtle colour accent.

The decorative design FLORIA brings colour into the room. The flower and leaf embroidery combines matt and glossy yarns. The polyester base fabric convinces with its good stability and good care properties, despite its emphatically natural look.

The room-high semi-transparent fabric ALLEY is adorned with a tone-on-tone block stripe design with a fine, glossy contour. The piece-dyed blended fabric with a flowing drape is available in 15 colourways.

The semi-transparent fabric LANY can be worked either lengthwise or crosswise. The linen, polyester and viscose base fabric is embroidered with an effect yarn, creating an impressive three-dimensional effect.

EXOTICO is a print fabric made of cotton and linen in a narrow fabric width. The semi-transparent fabric is adorned with an expressive floral design in a lively colour composition. A wonderfully modern print fabric!

The upholstery fabric STRIKE is an unusual bouclé interpretation. It is available in 27 colours, ranging from subdued shades to two- and three-tone colours. The fashionable hues bring lightness into the room. The fabric is pleasantly grainy and tactile, yet soft and very hard-wearing.

The hard-wearing plain PHIL from the FabricProtect range is a very dense bouclé fabric with a natural look and a soft feel. The wide range of colours and the FabricProtect finish make it a versatile all-rounder.
